56 DAYS TRAVELED
(lots) MILES COVERED

OUR BIGGEST accomplishments

This year we braved the waters of the Gulf of California and explored Albertan national parks and lakes. We survived diluvian rainfall in Prague, performed in the Archbishop's Chateau in Kromeriz, sipped coffee (and played Old Maid) in a Viennese cafe, navigated the narrow streets and bridges of Venice, walked in the steps of St. Francis of Assisi, descended into the Roman catacombs, and stared in awe at Michelangelo's Last Judgment. We perspired our way through Florence (gelato helped), conquered towers in Pisa, Barcelona, and Paris, vanquished the Louvre, sang with the von Trapp family singers in Salzburg, and rode the world's oldest roller coaster in Copenhagen. We missed a photo op with royalty in Berlin and spent two days in St. Petersburg immersed in the amazing culture of the tsars and tsarinas of Russia. We swam Hayden Lake with Nana Betty and celebrated two landmark anniversaries: 50th of George and Shirley Javor and 70th of Ken and Doris Cummings. Our passports are bushed.
